

COD optical cable bundle tube equipment

Overview

COD cable bundle pipe extrusion production line mainly includes: automatic feeder, SJ-65/30 single screw extruder, coating die, vacuum calibration tank, haul-off machine, cutting machine, winding machine, bundling device, etc. It has the characteristics of high output, simple process, high degree of automation, convenient operation, etc. Blank. COD bundle pipes play an important role in many fields. In the communications industry, they are used for laying optical cables and cables, protecting lines and achieving orderly wiring, and improving signal transmission stability. In the power industry, they can ensure cable safety and reduce. The COD Multi-Channel Optical Cable Cluster/Bundle Tube Equipment is a state-of-the-art product designed for handling Multi-Channel Fiber Optic Cables efficiently. COD pipe equipment, also known as COD corrugated multi-channel bundle pipe production line; Also known as COD multi-channel fiber bundle tube production line; Also known as COD multi-channel bundle tube equipment; COD stands for corrugated fiber optic cable protection tube, which is a whole.
